

ASG Behavior Code/Contract

We are excited you have decided to join the Associated Student Government team! Our goal is to work together for positive change on behalf of the student body.

ASG Values:

- ❖ Community: Community is a sense of place built through fellowship, collaboration, and engagement. Values Statement: SLL fosters community by centering student connections to each other, the college, and beyond.
- ❖ Student Success: Students achieve their self-defined goals. Values statement: SLL provides students with support they need to explore, create and achieve their self-defined goals.
- ❖ Learning: Active, expansive, and ongoing exploration to acquire knowledge Values statement: SLL encourages and prioritizes curiosity, learning, and growth in our programs, services, and activities.
- ❖ Equity: Equity focuses on eliminating barriers often through policy, structure, and process. It ensures identity is not predictive of opportunities or outcomes. Values Statement: SLL centers equity in our decision-making and considers how our work will lead to future equitable outcomes.
- ❖ Belonging: A feeling of being accepted for one's full self. Values statement: SLL recognizes that individuals come from a range of experiences and meaningfully accepts and celebrates the whole person in everything we do.

ASG members participate in activities with the community (on and off campus) and represent the college in a variety of settings. Therefore, this code applies to all activities on or off campus while you are a representative of CCC.
